

Elizabeth M. “Libby” McCarthy, Chief Financial Officer
The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey

Elizabeth M. McCarthy, Chief Financial Officer, oversees, directs and manages all Port Authority accounting and financial functions. With annual revenues of $5 billion, Ms. McCarthy oversees the agency's annual operating expenditure budget and annual capital program. She also provides oversight of the Agency's 2017-2026 $32.2 billion ten-year capital plan. Prior to joining the Port Authority in January 2013, Ms. McCarthy had more than 30 years of financial experience in both the public and private sectors, including leadership roles as chief financial officer at both the Long Island Power Authority and the New York Power Authority, as well as DPL Inc., a public utility holding company, and as a partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers